Rockhound of the Year Instructions

Rockhound of the Year – members of a society (i.e.) a single adult, a couple and/or a junior may be nominated to be the Rockhound of the Year. A Junior Rockhound of the Year may be nominated concurrent with an adult and/or couple.

Please complete the information on the form and submit the application to:

Chris Ward
17416 Stare St.
Northridge CA 91325

Or email to chris_ward678@yahoo.com

If you have any questions, please call (818) 439-0217
CFMS MEMBER RECOGNITION

Rockhound of the Year

One member or couple from your society/club can be recognized each year by the California Federation of Mineralogical Societies.

Year for Recognition: ____________

Society/Club Name: ____________________________________________________________

Person or Couple: ____________________________________________________________

Members for how long? (approximately): ____________ Junior Member? ____________

Write an article on how this person/couple/junior member has helped your club. Service to the club could be: being an officer, show chairman, bulletin editor, webmaster, help at the shop, instructor, junior program, educational speaker, hospitality at meetings (greeting new members and making them feel a part of the club), etc. If they have held many positions over the years, list several of them.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Submitted by: ___________________________ Date: ___________________________

Position: ___________________________